Are you looking for an avenue to supplement your income?
Are you analytical in the way you work?
Do you wish to become instrumental in the decision making process of accreditation?
Do you have good report writing skills?

If you answered YES to any of the above, this three day course is for you. This course will train you to become a nationally recognised Australian Retirement Village Accreditation (ARVA) Scheme surveyor.

The course will include specific instruction on:
- the accreditation process
- core skills of a surveyor
- communication skills
- village management and operation
- evidence collection
- the 27 ARVA standards and associated criteria
- legislation
- report writing skills (with practical case studies)

The course also includes practical on-the-job observation during an actual on-site survey.

Who Should Attend?
- RVA members wishing to become an Industry Representative Surveyor
- Non-members interested in becoming a nationally recognised ARVA Surveyor
- RVA members seeking professional development
